Welcome to a special Annual Report edition of the SBHAO Current.

When we considered combining our Annual Report with our SBHAO Quarterly Newsletter, the Current, there appeared to be several obvious benefits. Those who receive copies of the Annual Report would have an opportunity to read about a few of our Association's current activities in the newsletter, while those who subscribe to the Current would be able to enjoy the Annual Report's review of this past year's accomplishments.

The economic benefit of combining the two publications was an additional incentive for the undertaking of this joint endeavour.

Our Association has always been creative in its fundraising and publishing efforts and in getting "more bang for the buck".

We hope you enjoy reading this edition as much as we enjoyed putting it together.
